Lancashire Championship 3rd Day

The Championship

Brogan Townend who has just celebrated her 21st birthday, won the 2015 Lancashire Ladies' Championship at Southport & Ainsdale GC when she beat Catherine Roberts her fellow Pleasington Golf Club member and Lancashire Champion in 2012 & 2013 on the 19th after an enthralling low scoring "battle" in which Brogan won the 16th and 17th holes to level the match before sinking a long putt on the 18th to avoid defeat. Her par 3 on the 19th gave her the title after Catherine's tee shot was in the green side bunker and she did not sink her putt.

Brogan was Lancashire Junior Champion in 2010 and 2011 and both players are regular County Team members.

The Plate

Susan Barlow (Ashton-under-Lyne) playing in the Championship for the first time since her family have grown up defeated sixteen year old Lauren Green (West Lancashire) by 2/1.

Brogan Townend (Pleasington) beat Clare Seddon (Formby Ladies') 2 up

The Plate (Flight 2) Semi-Finals

Lancashire Championship 2nd Day

The Championship

After a day that provided some very close matches with two of the quarter final matches going past the 18th to find the winner, the semi-final matches will line up tomorrow with two former Champions, Bethany Garton (Royal Lytham & St Annes) and Catherine Roberts (Pleasington) playing each other for a place in the Final against either Clare Seddon (Formby Ladies') a very experienced County golfer or Brogan Townend (Pleasington), a 2014 semi-finalist who is just back home from studying at San Antonio University, Texas.

The Plate (Flight 2)

The four top qualifiers for The Plate have battled through to the semi-finals although they too had two matches needing extra holes to decide the winners. Susan Barlow (Ashton-under-Lyne) will take on 17 year old Alicia Stebbings (Wilpshire). In the second match Kim Bates (Houghwood) plays another teenager Lauren Green (West Lancashire).

26th May 2015

Lancashire Ladies' Championship First Day

Bethany Garton (Royal Lytham & St Annes) leads the qualifiers after the first day of the 2015 County Championship being played at Southport & Ainsdale Golf Club from 26-28 May. A cold morning and a strong wind that increased during the day led to difficult scoring conditions. The CSS for both rounds was 78 and they were Counting Competitions.

The 2015 Lancashire Ladies' Championship made a welcome return to Southport & Ainsdale Golf Club where the Championship was last played in 2006 when the winner was Florentyna Parker, now a successful member of the Ladies' European Tour.

Hollie Muse (West Lancashire) was not able to defend her title that she won last year at Clitheroe Golf Club, making her the youngest ever Lancashire Ladies' Champion. She withdrew on the advice of England Golf due to her inclusion in England teams at the end of May in Scotland and the beginning of June in Germany.

The Championship format is two stroke play rounds on Tuesday, then the top sixteen players go into the Championship match play with the next sixteen contesting the Plate, also match play, on Wednesday and Thursday with both finals on Thursday afternoon. Handicap Limit 15.4.

A special Championship card similar to the one used in 2006 SSS 76 was used.
